

It is unfair of Sinclair Broadcasting to air essentially an unfair evaluation of John Kerry at this time. It is more akin to propaganda not "news". This is an obvious move to sway voters at crucial time in this election.

The public deserves better than this. The Sinclair stations are using the public airwaves free of charge and should be serving our interests, not theirs.

Thank you.